3.0 Old business

3.1 Cell Tower considerations:

3.1.1 Signs – Waiting for signs to come in and get installed

3.2 Undesignated Tax Credit – Only ended up needing to use $900 to supplement Junior Achievement trip cost; trip went well; kids got a lot out of it

3.3 EAGLE Award –

Earns respect by respecting others first

Acts on initiative

Goes the extra mile

Leads when a leader is needed, follows when others need to lead

Encourages others to fly

4.0 New business

4.1 Staffing: Teacher Fair Saturday, 12/10 at District office at 8 a.m. – 2 p.m.

4.2 Technology Roll Out Follow Up: Port replicator allows teachers to use multiple screens; computers can be brought to meetings and increase efficiency; Prop 123 funded the new technology; Recent bond will help fund technology for students, building upgrades, etc; no timelines yet; Ogment is a learning management system that will be piloted next year in a few classrooms (Guerra & Perrone)

4.3 Rachel’s Challenge: Is this still as impactful as it has been in years past?; Is it worth the cost?; If we are going to get rid of it, what will replace it?; Alternative options are welcomed and will be considered

4.4 90 Day Plan: Our focus has been student engagement in terms of “critical thinking”; scaffolding and differentiating for student needs – pushing further and supplementing learning
